

Suggestion for Amendment of the Constitution of CEUC

§ 2 should read as follows:

§ 2 Aims

Art. 1

~~The CEUC is a Christian Ecumenical organization, whose~~ The CEUC is a Christian organisation seeking to work and collaborate both ecumenically and across belief groups that have chaplaincy representation on campus.

It's aims are:

a.

The organization of an annual Conference for European University Chaplains, except for those years when CEUC participates in the organization of the Global Conference of the International Association of Chaplains in Higher Education (IACHE).

b.

To promote communication and "networking" between University Chaplains in Europe, and to be a resource for their service.

c.

To promote partnerships between University Chaplains of different denominations and faith-groups.

d.

To engage with issues in Tertiary education, youth, culture and European institutions. Tertiary education refers to all post-secondary education at an academic level.

e.

To represent concerns and interests of University Chaplains to European and Global institutions and Church bodies.
